September 16, 2021

Members present: Karen Putnam, Todd Corneil, Cathy Cerkoney, Anita Kessel, Steven Klym, Connie Kasian

Members absent: Dean Rodne

Others present: State's Attorney Pat Weir, Zoning Director Stacey Swanson, Deputy Zoning Director Deanna Baranko, Deputy Auditor Jonna Bertelsen, TR Presidential Library Representatives Amy McCann, Jen Burke-Jackson, and Ken Vien

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Steve Klym at 1:00 pm.

Anita Kessel moved to approve the minutes from the August 19th regular zoning meeting. Cathy Cerkoney seconded. All voted aye.

State's Attorney Pat Weir discussed the memorandum of understanding between Billings County and the TR Presidential Library Foundation.

Representatives from the Theodore Roosevelt Library were present to give updates. The board asked if they have been getting out to the locals more, including Fairfield and Fryburg. Amy McCann stated they are willing to schedule a meet and greet at the Fairfield Firehall next month. Amy also handed out pamphlets to give more information on what will be displayed in the library. Cerkoney asked to clarify the concept of a presidential library. The library will house virtual documents, but is really intended to be an experience to learn about the life and presidency of TR. Ken Vien also discussed the land acquisition process with the board.

The meeting was adjourned at the courthouse and moved up to the Library site for a tour. Anita Kessel left the meeting at this time. Amy, Ken and Jen showed the board the plans for the library and where everything will be placed.

With there being no further business, Karen Putnam moved to adjourn at 2:30 P.M. Cathy Cerkoney seconded. All voted aye.
